A BOMBARDIER of the Royal Artillery named Ashdown died yesterday morning from the effects of having either thrown himself or accidentally fallen from a verandah at North Barracks on the previous evening. As the verandah railing is four feet high it seems unlikely that the man could have accidentally fallen over it, the more so as he is said to have been quite sober at the time. The deceased has left a wife and three children. A MAN naned Chan Fo, who was charged before Mr Wise to-day with demanding money with menaces from a woman, explained to his Worship, with an oleaginous amile, that the woman was his wife, and that she went away from him but promised to keep him, and he had merely gone fo his allowance. The complainant said she thought there must be some mistake here; the man was not her husband so far as she knew. His Worship bound the defendant over to keep the peace.

George of Greece, left for Canton at eight o'clock yesterday moreing in the China Merchants steamer Kungkwan. His Imperial Highness will return to Hongkong oh Wednesday, and on Thursday he will leave for Foucher, whence he will prooeed to Hankow. On Saturday evening the Russian Consulate in Hongkong was illuminated in honour of the Czarewitch. The whole front of the building was covered with Japanese lanterns forming a huge device representing the Russian flag-a blue cross on a white ground. There was also a display of fireworks from the roof of the building.

The P. and O. Co.'s steamer Lumbardy left First broke out about three o'clock yesterday morning in the first floor of house No. 41 Hillier Street, Talpingshan, and before it could basextinguished the building was entirely gutted. The tenants, however, aucoccied in making their escape, although one of then, a womany was so severely burned that she had to be removed to the Tung Wah Hospital The building is insured with the Hongkong Fire Insurance Co. for $600, but the loss to the tenants. none of whose effects were insured, is estimated at $1500. The cause of the fire is not known.

MR Goo. C. Miln's Dramatic Company performed Rob Roy at the City Hall on Saturday. There was a fairly large audience, but "the performance merited a bigger house, Rob Roy has been once or twice burlesqued in Hongkong, and it was be pleasure to witness an honest attempt to play the piece. The chief character in the drama is really not Rob Roy but Bailie Nicol Jarvie, who is, or is supposed to be; the impersonation of the self-conscious dignity of a canny, Scotch mugistrate and merchant, who has been brought up to consider 'speaking evil of dignities' as one of the greatest sins. The Bailie is the embodiment of some of the most characteristic traits of Scotch character. Mr Joe Stark who assumed the role on Saturday, although. he did not give a faultless representation, achieved a great success. If he is not a Scotshown, the greatest compliment that can be paid to him, is to say that Southern influence was scarcely traceable. He brought out the humour of the character very effectively without straining to be humorous. Mr Miln gave a very careful and, in a sense, a very powerful rendering of the title role; but in spite of his good acting and splendid elecutionary power he fell's little short of being Rob Roy. The Highland chieftsin is not a base bad man; he hides manysterlingly good qualities beneath a rough exterior; but his morality is not of the drawing-room order. In the pathetic scenes Mr Miln's Rob Roy had too much drawing-room polish, was too We must say also that Mr Miln did not succeed by his get-up in altogether looking like the bold thief. CONSEQUENT on the departure of Mr A. B. Miss Kate Douglas deserves considerable Johnson, Crown Solicitor, on four months' praise for her personation of Helen vacation leave, His Excellency the Gov- Macgregor. She betrayed true passion ernor has appointed. Mr Alfred, Parker and real elequence in the scene where Hulen's maternal love and deep-rooted jealousy are given expression to. Of the rest of the Company, little need be said with considerable skill, although it was once or twice evident that some who essayed Scotch characters were not born North of the Tweed. Mr Harry Hill as Mojor not quite so realistic in the drinking scene as an amateur, in a never-tobeing, but such realism cannot be looked from Marseilles has made this weekly for every day. Mesers Nunn and Eyre were fairly successful as the two Osbaldistones, bad and good, and Mr Atholwood. was a capital Dougal, perhaps a little too savage-looking. The character is generally overdone. As Capiain Thornton, Mr. Montgomery did the little he had to do fairly well. Miss Frances Rose had the somewhat thankless role of Liana Vernon; and if she did not succeed in preventing the character from being a little insipid the fault was not perhaps hers. In the ed in the Gazette, announces that the course of the evening various Scotch songs, choruses and ballads were given and were much appreciated : and one of the most popular interludes was the Highland fling dance, which was encored.
